Hello there!

Hello sweet friends,

This year has been an especially big one, as we celebrated our 10 year Shop Anniversary. I am more thankful than ever to own Lana's Shop, because you make it so meaningful. At the very heart of this business, I want to create authentically and connect with you. Year after year I get to do just that. What a gift!

Behind everything I make is the idea that sending something handwritten, kind, and full of love makes a difference in someone's day. Creating art is a special way to spread brightness and care into world.

I am inspired by simple, everyday beauty, and seek to make designs that your customers will cherish, share and want to gift. Art that uplifts seems even more precious in these trying times. My intention is to make your experience at Lana's Shop smooth sailing. We value being a positive presence and creating a relaxed, feel-good experience during the ordering process. Everyone prefers to be around kind people, so we work diligently to be that for you!

There are several new designs in our catalog, along with many of our classics. Recently our exclusive nursery art prints were featured in Crate & Kids; we created a custom textile line for Anthropologie; our designs were featured in Real Simple; and we were written up in The Washington Post. I am beside myself with gratitude.

It is my great joy to partner with you as the Shop continues to grow.

Thank you for your support and loyalty. I can't wait to watch another season unfold!

Spreading happiness around is our number one business (and life!) goal!

When I was a kid, I adored playing with alphabet flash cards. Now that I have little kiddos of our own, I decided to roll up my sleeves and create a fresh series of ABC images to inspire a new generation of tiny dreamers.

Nature-themed and handpainted, these whimsical letters are ready to roam. PACKADOO is a perfect gift for baby showers and adventurous families who love to learn on the go by flashlight, campfire, or summer sunshine.

Get cozy with these colorful double sided cards, and make learning an adventure. They're sure to become sweet keepsakes to cherish.
